Senator Bernier Looking Forward to New Legislative Session and Guiding the State Budget

Madison – Senator Kathy Bernier (R-Lake Hallie) issued the following statement about the legislative session and her new role on the Joint Finance Committee:

“With today’s inauguration of new and returning colleagues, I am looking forward to a productive session ahead. I would like to congratulate those who won their elections in November and are beginning their terms in the Senate. Legislators from across the state are geared up and ready to take on the challenges facing us in the State Capitol. We will need to hit the ground running.

“I am also excited about the fresh challenge of serving as a member of the Legislature’s budget writing committee. This will be the first time in more than a decade that someone from this part of the state will be on the Joint Committee on Finance. I am eager to provide west-central Wisconsin sensibility as we work on crafting a budget that works for the entire state.”
